Born into slavery, Bass Reeves became the most successful US Marshal of the Wild West. Many "heroic lawmen" of the Wild West, familiar to us through television and film, were actually violent scoundrels and outlaws themselves. But of all the sheriffs of the frontier, one man stands out as a true hero: Bass Reeves. The Legend of Bass Reeves by Gary Paulsen: 9780553494297 ... The pace is relentless, the amply creepy threat is believable, and the setting is fully realized. There is enough Native

American culture to add welcome flavor and depth; Bass, not Cree herself, explains her cultural and linguistic research in an author's note.
