When Wharton MBA Jooyun Hong went seeking the true secret of creating wealth, she found herself studying under a mysterious Korean guru who advises the 1% of South Korea. She now shares what she learned in this life-changing narrative- feel the joys of what you have and spend your money according to this feeling. Suh Yoon Lee was identified as a wealth guru at the age of six by her grandmother, and set off on a course of study--ranging from Asian classical texts to economics to an analysis of 100,000 case studies--to learn the methods for becoming truly rich. Although a bestselling author in South Korea and famed advisor to the 1%, Suh Yoon Lee had retreated into seclusion, troubled by the impact her guidance to the wealthy may have on income disparity around the world. Jooyun Hong has devoted her adult life to understanding how to build personal wealth without an inheritance in an era of increasing inequality. She emailed the guru asking for an interview, not expecting a response. Instead, the guru invited her to Lake Como, Italy, for a conversation. This invitation set off a life-changing series of lessons about how anyone can apply the true secret of wealth to their lives. In spectacular destinations ranging from Paris to Tokyo, this intimate narrative traces the growing friendship between these two women in a series of conversations that create a framework for the everyday person to experience the ease and comfort of wealth. The guru cuts an enigmatic figure in the narrative, and her counterintuitive guidance is premised on the notion that almost all people have the capacity to attain 3 to 7 million dollars--and some have a capacity for much more. And that journey begins with feeling what you already have. As Jooyun applies the guru's practical lessons in her everyday life, she experiences a transformation of her mood, fulfillment, and, ultimately, her net worth--a transformation available to anyone who practices the system of Having.

An accessible and fresh biography boldly arguing that Muhammad's entrepreneurial mindset helped unleash the modern world "A beautifully written, immaculately researched meditation on the impact of the Prophet Muhammad on the modern world. I loved this book!" —Reza Aslan, author of No God but God and Zealot: The Life and Times of Jesus of Nazareth A six-year-old cries in his mother's arms as she draws her last breaths to urge him: "Muhammad, be a world-changer!" The boy, suddenly orphaned in a tribal society that fears any change, must overcome enormous obstacles to unleash his own potential and inspire others to do the same. Fusing details long known to Muslim scholars but inaccessible to popular audiences, Mohamad Jebara brings to life the gripping personal story of Islam's founding prophet. From his dramatic birth to nearly being abducted into slavery to escaping assassination, Muhammad emerges as an unrelenting man on a mission. Surrounding the protagonist are dynamic women who nurture Muhammad; Jewish and Christian mentors who inspire him; and the enslaved individuals he helps liberate who propel his movement. Jebara places Muhammad's life in a broader historical context, vividly evoking the Meccan society he was born into and arguing that his innovative vision helped shape our modern world. Islam bukan agama budaya yang ajaran-ajarannya selalu berubah-ubah sesuai dengan kondisi budaya setempat. Islam adalah agama wahyu yang bersifat "sempurna dari awal" (QS 5:3). Ajaran moral dalam Islam bersifat permanen. Zina haram sejak dulu sampai kiamat. Siddiq (jujur) itu baik, dan tetap baik sampai kiamat. Sifat munafik itu dibenci. Tidak berubah dari dulu sampai sekarang, sebab hal itu jelas-jelas disebutkan dalam wahyu (al-Quran dan hadits Nabi). Islam juga menekankan, bahwa tujuan utama pendidikan adalah membentuk manusia yang mengenal Tuhannya, alias tidak syirik. Islam juga agama yang unik, karena memiliki "contoh" (uswah hasanah) dalam penerapan ajaran-ajarannya. Karakter yang khas dari Islam sebagai "agama wahyu" (revealed religion) ini perlu dipahami oleh para pendidik, agar tidak salah dalam menentukan bentuk dan tujuan pendidikan Islam.

Kemi 1 Wheeler Publishing, Incorporated This book is the first work that comprehensively presents the accounts of Lia Eden, a former flower arranger who claims to have received divine messages from the Archangel Gabriel and founded the divine Eden Kingdom in her house in Jakarta. This book places Lia Eden's prophetic trajectory in the context of diverse Indonesian spiritual and religious traditions, by which hundreds of others also claimed to have been commanded by God to lead people and to establish religious groups. This book offers a fresh approach towards the rich Indonesian religious and spiritual traditions with particular attention to the accounts of the emergence of indigenous prophets who founded some popular religions. It presents the history of prophetic tradition which remains alive in Indonesian society from the colonial to reform period. It also explores the ways in which these prophets rebelled against two hegemonies: colonial power in the past and Islamic orthodoxy in the present. The discussion of this book focuses on Lia Eden including her biography, claims to prophethood and divinity, the development of her group Eden Kingdom, her challenge to Islamic orthodoxy under the banner of the MUI (Indonesian Ulama Council), her persecution by radical groups, her experiences in court trials and imprisonment, and public responses to her emergence. The discussion also covers other themes currently drawing public attention in Indonesia, such as pluralism, religious freedom, tolerance, discrimination against minorities, and secularisation.

Cinta Kebebasan yang Tersesat

Feiwel & Friends

Inilah akhir perjalanan Kemi. Setelah "bermain-main", kemudian "terjebak" serta "tersesat" dalam kubangan liberalisme, santri cerdas bernama Kemi akhirnya menemui nasib tragis: diperas, dihinakan, disiksa, kemudian diakhiri hidupnya. Melalui Kemi 1 dan Kemi 2, Adian Husaini berhasil menyajikan kisah pergulatan batin dan pemikiran para aktivis liberal. Satu per satu, para aktivis liberal ditelanjangi dan dipatahkan logika-logikanya oleh santri kampung. Jaringan penyebaran paham liberalisme--dalam dan luar negeri--pun terbongkar. Skenario perusakan pemikiran terungkap jelas. Akhirnya, Kemi 3 menutup kisah pergulatan Islam versus liberalisme dengan babak akhir yang tragis. Meski telah sadar dan berusaha kembali ke jalan yang benar, Kemi harus jadi tumbal liberalisme. Sebagai akhir sebuah trilogi, Kemi 3 menyajikan keteladanan tinggi beberapa tokohnya dalam dunia pendidikan, yang sangat jarang terjadi di dunia nyata. Meski sebuah fiksi, semoga novel ini bisa menjadi hikmah bagi yang ikhlas membacanya. Selamat menghayati dan merenungi!

On the outside, Rebekah Campbell has an enviable life. She is founder of hot Sydney startup Posse.com, writes a popular blog and gives inspirational talks at conferences for female entrepreneurs. But when she turns off the light each night, she is alone and terrified of the future. She knows that what's important to her isn't money or startup glory or social media followers. She wants love. She wants a family. And she is stuck. She hasn't been on a date in ten years. She's too embarrassed to list herself on the internet and can't bear the risk of getting rejected. She decides to act. She'll take the tactics she's learnt building companies and apply them to finding a man. Her epic journey will take her on dates with 138 different men in Sydney, New York and San Francisco, while at the same time confronting the immense challenges of launching a business. She'll face exhaustion, humiliation and heartbreak; she'll meet some strange and dangerous characters. And she will strip herself of the ego and expectations that have been holding her back. She will not stop. 138 Dates proves that the end is always worth the effort.

Kitab al-Amwal (The Book of Revenue) is the work of a brilliant legal mind. Abu Ubayd al-Qasim ibn Sallam provides us with an accurate record of legal precedents laid down in the first two centuries of Islam, in particular those pertaining to the sources of revenue and the avenues of public expenditure. The power of the book, however, lies in the method of the author and the analysis undertaken by him. He gathers together the traditions of the Prophet (pbuh), the opinions of his companions and the views of eminent jurists, and then subjects them to legal analysis that is unparalleled in Islamic legal literature. This book, now in paperback, is essential for every student of Islamic law, especially those who wish to master the art of interpreting and analyzing legal traditions and early precedents. In the discipline known as fiqh al-sunnah, there is no book or manual that can compete with this outstanding work.

Surat dari & untuk pemimpin Xulon Press
 Banyak di antara kita melontarkan alasan klasik saat diajak untuk berbuat baik. Diajak bersedekah, beralasan belum kaya. Disuruh menikah untuk menghindari zina, beralasan belum mapan. Diajak ke masjid untuk shalat berjamaah, beralasan banyak kerjaan ini dan itu. Diajak berdakwah, beralasan masih belum baik maka tak mungkin mengajak orang untuk baik. Nanti dibenci Allah. Mereka lebih berpikir "nanti bagaimana?" saat diajak berbuat baik. Padahal harusnya yang tebersit dalam pikirannya adalah "bagaimana nanti saja lah". Sebaliknya, saat diajak kepada hal-hal yang mudharat atau bahkan maksiat kepada Allah lebih berpikir "bagaimana nanti saja lah" daripada "nanti bagaimana kalau saya berbuat ini?" Akan sampai kapan sikap kita seperti ini? Berubahlah menjadi lebih baik sebelum ajal menjemput atau sebelum matahari terbit dari barat. Namun, apakah kita tahu kapan ajal akan menjemput kita? Mulailah hari ini, mulailah saat ini, dan mulailah dari hal yang kecil. Bismillah, Allah senantiasa bersama orang-orang yang memperbaiki diri.

Religious Development in Morocco and Indonesia Amazon Crossing

"In four brief chapters," writes Clifford Geertz in his preface, "I have attempted both to lay out a general framework for the comparative analysis of religion and to apply it to a study of the development of a supposedly single creed, Islam, in two quite contrasting civilizations, the Indonesian and the Moroccan." Mr. Geertz begins his argument by outlining the problem conceptually and providing an overview of the two countries. He then traces the evolution of their classical religious styles which, with disparate settings and unique histories, produced strikingly different spiritual climates. So in Morocco, the Islamic conception of life came to mean activism, moralism, and intense individuality, while in Indonesia the same concept emphasized aestheticism, inwardness, and the radical dissolution of personality. In order to assess the significance of these interesting developments, Mr. Geertz sets forth a series of theoretical observations concerning the social role of religion. Introducing Postmodernism Cambridge University Press

She's a free-spirited dreamer. He's a brilliant painter. But now their shared passion for art has turned into something deeper.... For as long as she can remember, Kugy has loved to write. Whimsical stories are her passion, along with letters full of secret longings that she folds into paper boats and sets out to sea. Now that she's older, she dreams of following her heart and becoming a true teller of tales, but she decides to get a "real job" instead and forget all about Keenan, the guy who makes her feel as if she's living in one of her own fairy tales. Sensitive and introverted, Keenan is an aspiring artist, but he feels pressured to pursue a more practical path. He's drawn to Kugy from first sight: she's unconventional, and the light radiating from her eyes and the warmth of her presence pull him in. They seem like a perfect match-both on and off the page-but revealing their secret feelings means risking their friendship and betraying the people they love most. Can they find the courage to admit their love for each other and chase their long-held dreams?
